Dear Friends

It takes a community of partners to provide our multidisciplinary season of music, theatre, dance and visual arts. Each year we serve over 700 actors, singers, dancers, musicians and artists; and 15,000 audience members through education and performance for all ages and levels of experience. The relationship shared etween Lorain County Metro Parks and TrueNorth is unique, allowing both organizations to grow beyond what either could provide alone as ambassadors to the public and through the arts. We thank everyone who joins us in carrying out our mission, starting with you our patrons; without each of you none of this would be possible. Thank you for your continued support as we set our compass within the arts.

On The Mainstage this fall we are getting nostalgic through a beloved, ghoulish family with an affinity for all things macabre, and through the story of a quirky innocent boy and his quest for a Red Ryder BB Gun! The Family Life Series hosts seven productions, including our annual summer theatre camp musical. Each show is joined by a variety of educational programs connecting the themes to real life. The TrueNorth Concert Season brings us 15 concerts featuring The TrueNorth Chorale, Chamber Orchestra, Big Band, Youth Symphonia, and Children Choirs.

A Taste of TrueNorth takes place Saturday, March 21st, 6:30 – 9:30pm. Come and experience highlights from the music, theatre and visual arts of TrueNorth. Hors d'oeurves and cash bar provided. Treat your taste buds to a night of the arts while supporting our mission.

The TrueNorth Annual Fundraiser and Silent Auction will be Saturday, June 20th 6:00 – 10:00pm. The evening will include TrueNorth's 2015 Shining Star Award and the announcement of the TrueNorth season for 2015-2016.

We humbly thank you for supporting us in our vision as we continue to set a new direction within the arts.

-Richard A. Fortney,

TrueNorth Cultural Arts represents over 150 different artists. We proudly display artwork at French Creek Nature & Arts Center and at . Mercy Health & Recreation Center. Addams Family October 17 - November 2, 2014

Directed by Kristin Netzband Book by Marshall Brickman and Rick Elice Music & Lyrics by Andrew Lippa Based on Characters Created by Charles Addams

They're creepy and they're kooky, and they're coming to TrueNorth! America's spookiest television family opens our for decades, and this new musical adaptation is season in one of the region's first productions of this quirky, sure to the do the same. The only present little award-winning musical. The Addams Family is just like every other ordinary family-if by "ordinary" you mean your uncle is a hunchback, the butler looks like Frankenstein's monster, and a disembodied hand named "Thing" roams the house. Wednesday Addams is the dark daughter of the household who loves pet spiders and torturing her younger brother. Life is perfectly grim until Wednesday develops a numbers that go hand in hand with the popular crush on a "normal" boy and brings him home to meet the story you've watched for years, A Christmas Story parents, and the ensuing dinner party turns into a twisted reminds us all what it's like to be a kid again. Don't evening of macabre mischief and mayhem. If you think your settle for watching it on TV – experience the magic family's got problems, The Addams Family will show you just of A Christmas Story live on stage at TrueNorth. how much fun dysfunctional can be!

Directed by Kim Mihalik Book by Joseph Robinette Music & Lyrics by Benji Based on the motion picture A Christmas Story has delighted families during the holiday season Ralphie Parker wants is a Red Ryder BB gun, and he won't let anyone – not even Santa himself – stand in his way. But with Christmas right around "vou'll shoot your eye out," Ralphie's prospects

January 9 - 25, 2015

By Alfred Uhry | Directed by Tyson Douglas Rand

Before it was an Academy Award-winning film, Driving Miss Daisy was a Pulitzer Prize-winning play. Written by Alfred Uhry, it tells the story of the unique relationship between an elderly, white woman, Daisy Werthran, and her black chauffeur, Hoke Colburn. Set in Atlanta during the 50s and 60s, the play takes audiences on a journey of prejudice and racism, but ultimately, understanding as Daisy comes to know Hoke as a person and a friend.

February 27 - March 15, 2015 (CHRIST)

Loosely based on the Gospels, Superstar tells the story of Jesus' arrest, crucifixion and resurrection as seen through the eyes of Judas Iscariot. With a score and Ivrics by the incredible team of Andrew Lloyd Webber and Tim Rice, songs like "Jesus Christ Superstar," "I Don't Know How to Love Him," and Jesus' powerful successful brand created by Britt Menzies, and winner desire companionship. Winner of the American plea to the Father "Gethsemane (I Only Want to Say)" have resonated with audiences for decades. Revived again and again for its outstanding music and timeless message, don't miss out on this legendary piece of theatre.

By Tennessee Williams | Directed by Fred Sternfeld

Catapulting then-unknown playwright Tennessee Williams into the American lexicon forever, this classic play takes a hard, unforgiving look at the ties that don't always bind. Semi-autobiographical in nature, Williams' tense drama introduced the world to the Wingfields: a family made up of an absent father, sickly daughter, overbearing mother, and a son who yearns for a different life. When an evening visit from a gentleman caller doesn't go as planned, events are set in motion with irreparable consequences. Special daytime school matinees are available for this production.

Music & Lyrics by Richard Adler & Jerry Ross

Directed by Jordan Cooper | Book by George Abbott & Richard Bissell Based on the novel 7½ Cents by Richard Bissell

The timeless musical The Pajama Game has delighted audiences since it first opened on Broadway in 1955. Sparks fly at the Sleep-Tite Pajama Factory as union leader Babe Williams lobbies the superintendent Sid Sorokin for a 7 ½ cent raise for the workers. Things come to a head when Babe organizes a strike, setting off a conflict of workers versus management as well as a battle of the sexes. With an energetic score by Richard Adler and Jerry Ross (Damn Yankees), The Pajama Game flaunts a slew of upbeat musical standards including "Steam Heat" and "Hernando's Hideaway." The show won the Tony for Best Musical for its original 1955 production, and was nominated for Best Revival of a Musical in 2006, proving that classics never go out of style!

September 19 - 28, 2014

Directed by Fred Gloor

Adapted by Eric Coble from the book by Lois Lowry

Adapted by Cleveland playwright Eric Coble, this Newbery Medal winning novel ignites the stage with its moving tale of a boy learning that the world around him is hardly what it seems. Designated to inherit his utopian community's role as the 'Receiver of Memories,' 12-year-old Jonas comes face-to-face with powerful knowledge of a time long ago that could topple the fragile society in which he lives. Confronted with decisions whose consequences far outweigh anything he has ever known, how far will Jonas go to discover the truth? Named one of the 'Best Books for Young Adults' by the American Library Association, this dramatization of Lois Lowry's modern day classic will continue to affect audiences long after the lights have come up.

November 14 - 23, 2014 ALL REALLY NEED

By Jason Pizzarello | Directed by Brian McNally

the corner and every adult in his life warning him A slice of life (and hunk of flesh) look at the dreams, dilemmas and "devouring" experiences we all go through, All I Really Need to start to look bleak. Featuring fantastic musical Know I Learned from Being a Zombie presents a series of instructive vignettes populated by an unexpected and horrific cast: the undead. Inspired by the wildly popular collection of essays All I Really Need to Know I Learned in Kindergarten by Robert Fulghum, this "contagious" compilation explores valuable life lessons like "Brains Aren't Everything", "You Are What You Eat" and "What Doesn't Kill You Makes You Stronger". Proving that there's more to life than...well...life, All I Really Need to Know I Learned from Being a Zombie is guaranteed to leave audiences "hungry" for more.
